In the Arabian Nights Scheherazade earned the admiration of the King, Shahryar, because of her ingenious ability to entertain him with 1001 tales concerning the history of preceding generations.

This year the Mirror staff has elected to present their modernized version of this literary classic and has selected as its setting Louisville High School for the memories of another active year.

ADMINISTRATION

Just as the citizenry in the Arabian Nights came into the presence of their leaders with an air of awe born partly of respect and partly of fear, the students of our school revere those whose training and experience have set them apart and qualified them to serve as employees, faculty, and administrators of this school.

"He therefore sent for each separately."

...sitting himself down by the fountain, he awaited the coming of the Genie
...in all the terror imaginable.

FACULTY

AT EASE

The time came when the day's work was finished. The king dismissed his court and summoned his trusted servants and they prepared to make merry with feasting and conversation.

C L A S S E S

People in the Arabian nights were divided into classes according to their material possessions. At LHS we are divided according to our ages, talents, and achievements. The Class of '59 is the most experienced, the juniors the biggest, the sophomores the most complacent, and the freshmen the most bewildered. During this year we have all gone along together but soon we will be separated never to meet again under the same circumstances.

"For several days he traveled the same road until he reached a resting place where the way branched off in different directions."

CLUBS and ORGANIZATIONS

The Arabians held festivities with dancing girls and feasts to celebrate special occasions. Every year brings L. H. S. teenagers many highlights — moments forming memories always to be treasured. L. H. S.'ers also have their co-curricular groups to give them training in active participation and dynamic leadership such as in clubs, music organizations, and speech organizations.

TRI-HI-Y

The biggest event sponsored by the Tri-Hi-Y this year was the formal dance held February 14.

This club, composed of junior and senior girls, sponsors many activities, such as decorating a Christmas tree at a rest home, collecting clothes for orphans and selecting honor girls from its senior members. Honor girls are chosen for their leadership, citizenship, cooperation, and personality.

The officers, Charlotte Smith, president; Linda Monter, treasurer; Betty Haren, secretary; Carolee Williams, vice-president and Linda Himes, chaplain, are shown selling football programs, another project of the club.

The co-advisors are Mrs. Dora Shambler and Miss Anna Mae Montgomery.

SR HI-Y

The big event for this club is the annual Hi-Y Variety Show held in the spring.

Competing with the other Hi-Y clubs in basketball and sponsoring dances are two other activities of this club.

Elected as officers of the club are: Carl Moore, chaplain; Eben Peer, treasurer; Dale Wartluft, president; Ken Hathaway, vice-president and Ken Radcliff, secretary.

Mr. James McDougall is advisor for the club.

"Though he might immediately have entered, yet he thought it best to knock."

The Friendship Club of L. H. S. is formed to promote friendship and good character.

Decorations around school at Christmas time, the annual Courtesy Dance in the spring, and a sock hop are the projects this club sponsors during the school year.

Shown at initiation are officers: Karen Phillips, treasurer; Jean Parsons, secretary; Ann Cholevy, vice president; Kathy Dwyer, president; and Doris Thoman, chaplain.

Club sponsor is Miss Norma Grimes.

JR HI-Y

Creating, extending, and maintaining high standards of Christian character in the home, school, and community is the purpose for Jr-Hi-Y.

A new merit system was adopted this year. Members get merits for service, good grades, and leadership.

This club, because of its affiliation with Y.M.C.A., attends many of the meetings and activities that the Y plans.

The annual sale of pencils at the pencil machine on the third floor is being shown by the officers: Dennis Biery, president; Willard Miller, treasurer; Don Avdul, vice-president; Larry Rufin, secretary and Don Sommers, chaplain.

Mr. Roy Matheny is club advisor.

SCIENCE

Developing an interest in science is one of the main objectives of the Science club. To promote intelligent thinking, the club sponsors the annual Science Day which is held in the spring. Dances are held to help send the science winners of the local scholarship tests to Kent for the finals.

Putting on an experiment are the officers. They are: Margo Sorenson, chaplain; Louis Weinrich, president; Dennis Groves, vice-president; Fern Yoder, secretary, and Gary Linerode, treasurer.

Mr. Herman Lutz is club advisor.

"The goldsmith took a pair of scales, weighed the dish . . ."

ROSTRONIAN

"My members raise funds for forensic work at Louisville High School" is the motto of the Rostronian club. Members sell refreshments at football and basketball games.

This club is also a booster club for speech.

The members also find time for social activities such as a box social and going to the Players Guild of Canton twice a year.

Having a box social is Larry Nimon vice-president; Daryll Wartluft, president Mary Beth Chenot, treasurer and Susan Heckaman.

Co-advisors for the club are Mr. Donald King and Miss Anna Montgomery.

COMMERCIAL

Those who plan to go into the business field for their occupation are benefitted through membership in Commercial club. The club hears outside speakers concerning the business field.

The crowning of Miss Ideal Secretary is the highlight of this club. Dances are held in order to purchase office machines for the commercial department.

The officers, around one of the business machines, are Sandra Bruder, treasurer; Rosemary Dourm, vice-president; Dale Kinner, secretary; Barbara Mills, chaplain, and Grace Schmucker, president.

Mrs. Dorothy Norris and Mr. Earl Walter are co-advisors for the club.

"He ordered one of his secretaries to write them in characters of gold and lay them up in his treasury."

RIFLE

This is the third year for the Rifle Club at L. H. S. It meets every Thursday at the McKinney Shooting Range, 611 Rex Avenue N. E. Here they practice to become better marksmen. The members may use their own guns or borrow them, but each member has to buy his own ammunition.

The members sold fruit cakes and held dances. The officers are Lee Shearer and Tim Kauth, range officers; Ronald Dickerhoff, vice president; Pat Smith, treasurer; Bob Gies, president; and Joan Norton, secretary.

Mr. Richard Morley is advisor for the club.

To support the team and help create school spirit and good sportsmanship is the purpose of the Pep club

Members of the club must be present at all home football and basketball games, sell beanies and student tickets for home and away games, take buses to away games, know all cheers, help cheerleaders decorate school and goal posts for games, and help with cheer rallies. They also operate the coat check at the dances after the games.

The officers, looking at magazines, are: Karen Crookston, treasurer; Ramona Nims, chaplain; Margo Sorenson, president; Betty Haren, vice-president; Shirley Hartzell, secretary and Donna Myers, historian.

Mrs. Denver Smith and Mr. James Morgan are co-advisors.

Bill Samsbeck, Sports Editor, points out a story to Barbara Brown, Business Manager, as they work on the paper. Gary Geary, Business Assistant, is also present.

Cathy Ann, Artist, prepares to crop a picture as Mike Roberts, Reporter, and another person, Feature Editor, measure the paper.

FIRST SEMESTER SPOTLIGHT STAFF

The SPOTLIGHT is the order of news symbol for L. H. S. and the voice of the student body. During the year, 16 issues are distributed at two week intervals.

Each semester brings a new staff, new changes and advancement toward a better paper.

The SPOTLIGHT staff sponsors the annual football homecoming queen. This year, Betty Haren reigned as queen at the Louisville Sebring football game and dance held in her honor after the victory game. The L. H. S. paper also sponsors the local eliminations of the American Legion essay contest and participates in the T. B. Press Project.

Mrs. Mene Kempe is adviser for the SPOTLIGHT.

Betty Haren, Reporter, Sandy Lane, Typist, and Linda Hare, Typist, compare papers from other schools.

Vacation did not last long for the members of this year's yearbook staff as monthly meetings were held at the school during the summer to choose the theme and to begin getting ads. After school started, we met periodic deadlines and completed our book by February 26.

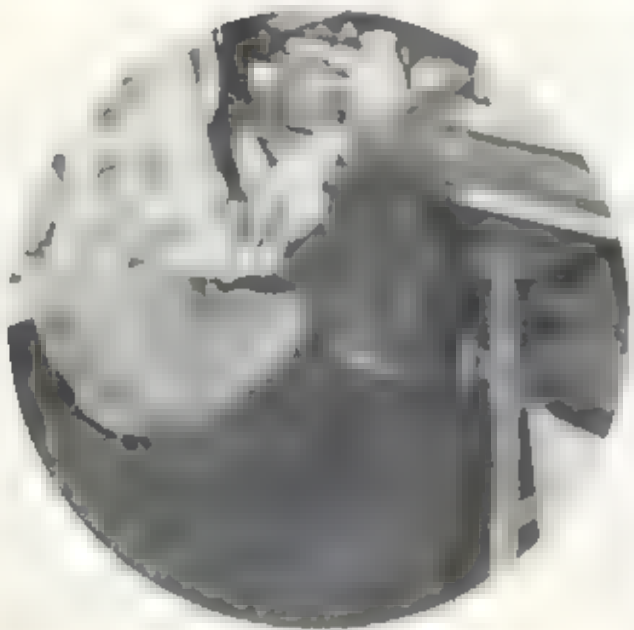

The 1959 Yearbook Staff sincerely hopes that you like its production of the Arabian Nights.

S P O R T S

Just as dueling with scimitars was a favorite sport of Arabian thieves, tests of strength and skill have continued through the years. Hard play, sportsmanship, and co-operation have built a proud sports record for the Leopards.

"Grunting and groaning with every movement"

IN MEMORY OF TOM

The Angels were playing a football game.
The score was tied; then Skolosh came.
His Heavenly coach had sent him a call.
They needed a tackler, husky and tall.
Tom left his coach and team down here
And joined the Saints; he had no fear.
Yes, Tom left his earthly team last night
In exchange for one in a heavenly light.

—Mary DeHoff

HOMeward BOUND

A black and white photograph of a group of approximately 12 people, mostly men, standing in a room. They are dressed in formal attire, including suits and ties. The room has a large window or doorway in the background and a desk or table in the foreground.

A black and white portrait photograph of a young woman, likely a child, looking slightly to the left. The image is heavily degraded with significant noise and artifacts, particularly along the edges and bottom. The subject has light-colored hair and is wearing a dark, possibly patterned, garment. The background is dark and indistinct. The overall quality is poor, with a grainy texture and visible damage to the original print.

A black and white photograph of a group of people, likely a choir or a group of students, standing in a room. They are dressed in formal attire, and some are holding books or papers. The setting appears to be a school or a formal gathering.

A black and white photograph of a group of seven people, likely a family, standing together indoors. From left to right: a man in a dark suit, a woman in a light dress, a man in a dark suit, a woman in a light dress, a man in a dark suit, a woman in a light dress, and a man in a dark suit. They are all looking towards the camera.

Get the healthful Milk-at-Bedtime Habit

Right at bedtime, a glass of milk releases your body's natural sleep-inducing hormone. That's because milk is rich in calcium, which helps your body produce melatonin,
the hormone that tells your body when it's time to sleep. So, drink your milk at bedtime. It's even more relaxing and healthy.

Congratulations—another born critic!

BORN in America—so he has freedom of speech. He's expressing it already—and he can go right on criticizing, discussing, debating for the rest of his life here. Nobody's ever going to tell him to shut up!

Imagine the difference, had he been born in a Communist country! He'd never be able to criticize anything. He couldn't sound off about taxes, government, job, prices, criticize public officials. Why not? Well, if he did he'd be shot.

We hope he becomes a good, honest, sincere critic. We hope he'll always stand right up and defend his rights. We hope he'll never be afraid to turn the spot light on wrongs—so someone will take steps to right them. Because that's the American way, and it's an American right guaranteed by the Constitution. It's a freedom, and we're all born to it.

One thing we know: the rest of us aren't going to let anyone come in and rob him of this right, until he grows up and can defend it for himself. We aren't going to trade our freedoms—any of them—for Iron Curtain conditions.

Will you stand up and defend your freedom of speech? If you do, nobody can ever take it away from you.

Just Plug Hose into Wall Inlets for a New Era in Vacuum Power

NO MACHINE TO LUG—NO CORD TO TUG

WITH Vacu-FLO®
BUILT-IN SYSTEMS

FOR YOUR NEW OR PRESENT HOME

All the advantages of super vacuum power for the best and fastest cleaning you have ever experienced—just like the big hotels, hospitals, etc.—that's Vacu-Flo, absolute dustless cleaning for a cleaner, more healthful home. Vacu-Flo's ingenious free flowing tube system with wall inlets can easily be installed in new or existing homes—does away with dust circulating heavy machines with cords to lift and lug around the house

PLUG-IN LOCATIONS
CONVENIENTLY LOCATED THROUGHOUT THE HOME

SUPER POWER DOES MORE WORK

Dust and dirt whisks away without a fuss—no more dust clouds and you'll marvel at Vacu-Flo's greater suction power—makes cleaning your rugs, draperies, furniture and house hold items easier than ever before

SEE VACU-FLO IN ACTION

Vacu-Flo's super powered vacuum producer is mounted in garages, basements, utility rooms etc., out of living area for quiet operation—dust and dirt collects in the big receptacle at this point
